NEW-YORK, September 2.

CAPTAIN Walker, who arrived here last Wednesday, in five weeks from the Bay of Honduras, informs us, that on the 10th of July last fifteen Spanish craft, with 200 men, from Campeachy and Guatamala, came into Backelo or New-River in the Bay, and there took the following English vessels, viz. Capt. Battagen of Jamaica, Capt. Serjeant of Rhode-Island, Capt. Groves of Boston, and Capt. Broadhurst of New-York, all sloops; also one schooner, another sloop and 25 flats, making in all 164 men prisoners. As soon as this news reached Old-River, which the Spaniards did not think proper to visit, the English there sent a flag of truce, and settled a cartel with them; after much treating they got nineteen of the men released, amongst which were the Captains Broadhurst and Saltus of New-York, and Capt. Bailey of Bermudas, the rest, with all the vessels and booty were carried off by them.

Extract of a Letter from St. Thomas's.

"The Spaniards are beginning their old tricks of taking our vessels; they have taken a Snow bound from Curacoa to New-York, and carried her into Porto-Rico, where, without doubt, she will be condemn'd, for it was never known that any have escap'd their claws. Capt. Falkingham of the Shark man of war, was at Porto-Rico when she was brought in, who took all the measures he could to assist the Captain in getting his vessel again, but all to no purpose.—They pretend that stock-fish wood makes him Bon-Prize, as they call it." (It is supposed this vessel is Capt. Carpenter, who 'tis said, has a large quantity of money on board belonging to the merchants of this city, and has been for some time expected.)

New-York, Sept. 23. By Capt. Daniel Seymour, who arrived here last week from Curacoa, we have advice that the Spanish privateers and guarda costas, [illegible] they can, without respect of persons; that one of the Curacoa sloops coming up from Aruba, was taken by one of them, and carried off; whereupon the commander at Curacoa caus'd two Spanish schooners and two sloops, which came in there, to be seized as reprizals, on board of which were effects and money to the value of 40,000 pieces of eight; and Proclamations were read off just before Capt. Seymour left Curacoa, ordering four stout vessels to be immediately fitted out, with full orders to cruise against the Spaniards, and to take or destroy all they met with.

New-York, Sept. 30. By several private letters from London come in Capt. Troup, we have advice, that the Honourable ROBERT HUNTER MORRIS, Esq; chief justice of the province of New-Jersey, is appointed lieutenant governor of this province. We have also advice of the safe arrival in England, of the Capts. Amory, Bryant, Corne, and Machugh, all from this Port.

Philadelphia, October 3. Monday night last the streets of this city began to be illuminated with lamps, in pursuance of a late act of assembly.
